

The Villages Homeowners Advocates (VHA) offers philanthropic funding to organizations and programs that provide services and support to residents of The Villages, FL and the surrounding tri-county area.

Eligible organizations and lifestyle groups based in, or benefitting populations in The Villages and Lake, Sumter and Marion Counties, whose missions align with the VHA's Mission, may apply for cash grants from the VHA Foundation.

Primary consideration is given to applications from those who are involved in addressing the need for aging-in-place, physical and mental health, US veterans, US armed forces and youth.

The VHA supports the VHA Foundation through membership dues, fundraising and donations.
